WHEREAS, the preparation of the budget must be in accordance with Article IV, Section 3 (c) which states that the Chairman of the Executive Branch is responsible to "engage in any business that will further the economic well-being of the members of the Tribe"; and

WHEREAS, Joint Action Resolution JAR05-02 titled "Approval of Revised FY 2005 Budget" passed on the 18th day of April, 2005, is, according to the Tribal Chairman, based on the proceeds of settlement of litigation known as Crow Tribe vs. Norton, filed in US District Court for the District of Columbia as 1;02-cv-00284 (RCL) in the amount of $10,000,000.00; and

WHEREAS, when the 2005 budget was presented by Carl Venne, Crow Tribal Chairman, full disclosure of the facts pertaining to the litigation known as Crow Tribe vs. Norton was not disclosed to the Crow Legislature thereby limiting the Crow Legislature from making a fully informed decision with respect to the 2005 annual budget; and LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION OF THE CROW TRIBAL LEGISLATURE ENTITLED: CLARIFICATION OF RESOLUTION NO. JAR05-02." IN WHICH FULL DISCLOSURE OF ALL INFORMATION AND DOCUMENTS WERE NOT PRESENTED AT THE TIME OF ACTION TAKEN BY THE LEGISLATURE, WHICH IS DETRIMENTAL TO THE CROW TRIBE AND ITS MEMBERS.

WHEREAS, the litigation known as Crow Tribe vs. Norton was presented in the US District Court for the District of Columbia as “Joint Stipulation of Settlement and Proposed Order” which calls for the Defendant, Gale Norton, former Secretary of the Interior, to pay the Crow Tribe, Plaintiff, $10,000,000.00 in “full, complete and final settlement of all claims, causes of action, obligation, or liabilities that the Plaintiff has asserted or could have asserted-as well as all claims, causes of action, obligation, or liabilities for which factual basis exists, regardless of whether claims, causes of action, obligations, or liabilities have legally accrued as of the date of the Court’s entry of this Joint Stipulation of Settlement as an Order”; and

WHEREAS, this Joint Stipulation of Settlement releases the Defendant, Gale Norton, from any “obligation to provide a historical accounting of the Tribe’s trust funds and trust assets, and the Defendant’s fulfillment of such obligation;” and the “Defendant’s alleged mismanagement of the Tribe’s trust assets and natural resources including but not limited to any existing claim or allegation that Defendants (1) failed to make the Tribe’s trust assets or natural resources productive; (2) failed to obtain an appropriate return on, or appropriate consideration for, the Tribe’s trust assets or natural resources; (3) failed to collect, fully or timely, rent, fees or royalties, or other payments for the transfer, sale, encumbrance, or use of the Tribe’s trust assets or natural resources; (4) failed to preserve, protect, or maintain the assets or natural resources; (5) permitted the misuse or overuse of the Tribe’s trust assets or natural resources; (6) failed to enforce the terms of any permits, leases, or contracts for the transfer, sale, encumbrance, or use of the Tribe’s assets or natural resources; (7) failed to prevent trespass on the Tribe’s trust assets or natural resources; and (8) failed to report or provide information about Defendant’s actions or decisions relating to the Tribe’s trust assets or natural resources”; and

WHEREAS, this Joint Stipulation of Settlement as an Order requires the “Plaintiff release Defendants from, and Plaintiff covenants not to sue on all claims, causes of action, obligation, or liabilities that the Plaintiff has asserted or could have asserted....”either in an administrative action before the Interior or Treasury or in a case in the United States District Court or the Court of Federal Claims”; and

WHEREAS, this Joint Stipulation requires the Plaintiff “ to accept as accurate the balances of the trust fund accounts, as those balances are stated by the Office of the Special Trustee for American Indians of the Department of the Interior on the date of the Court’s entry of the Joint Stipulation of Settlement as an Order”; and

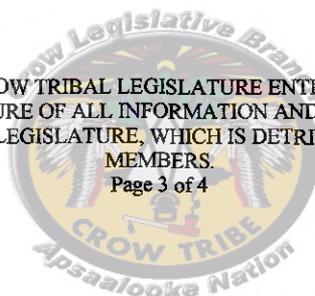

WHEREAS, the Joint Stipulation of Settlement as an Order further states “Plaintiff’s counsel Majel Russell certifies that, pursuant to the Tribe’s Constitution (effective as of July 14, 2001, and approved by the Secretary of Interior on December 14, 2001), she has obtained the review and authorization of the Tribe’s Executive Branch, specifically, the Tribal Chairman, to enter into this Joint Stipulation of Settlement. Further, Ms. Russell certifies that the Executive Branch Chairman has obtained the authorization of the Tribe’s Legislative Branch regarding this settlement, specifically, the Legislative Branch’s ratification of the Joint Action Resolution that was signed by the Tribal Chairman and that set forth a plan for the expenditure of the monies from this settlement”; and

WHEREAS, this Joint Stipulation of Settlement is an action which clearly does not benefit the welfare of all members of the Crow tribe, and violates the Constitutional responsibilities of the Executive Branch according to Article IV, Section 3 (c) to engage in any business that will further the economic well-being of the members of the Tribe and undertake any economic development activity which does not conflict with the provisions of the Constitution; (e) employ legal counsel for the protection and advancement of the rights of the Crow Tribe and its members; and (j) protect and preserve the property, wildlife, and natural resources including air and water of the Tribe in accordance with ordinances adopted by the Legislative Branch.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE CROW TRIBAL LEGISLATURE:

THAT, this Legislative Resolution which clarifies Joint Action Resolution JAR05-02 and states that this Joint Action Resolution only approved the submitted FY 2005 Budget, which contained a plan for the use of the settlement proceeds from the litigation of Crow Tribe vs. Norton, and did not, as alleged, grant their authorization to the Executive Branch Chairman regarding the settlement called “Joint Stipulation of Settlement as an Order,” case number 1:02-cv-00284 (RCL), AND ACCORDING TO CONSTITUTION AND BYLAWS OF THE CROW TRIBE OF INDIANS ARTICLE V., SECTION 2. (d) TO GRANT FINAL APPROVAL OR DISAPPROVAL OF ITEMS NEGOTIATED BY THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH OF GOVERNMENT PERTINENT TO SALE, DISPOSITION, LEASE OR ENCUMBERANCE OF TRIBAL LANDS, INTEREST IN LANDS, OR MINERALS ASSETS PROVIDED THAT A PROCESS FOR SUCH APPROVAL OR DISAPPROVAL MAY BE ESTABLISHED BY LEGISLATION.

THAT, ON APPROVAL OF THIS LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION A CERTIFIED LETTER SHALL BE IMMEDIATELY SENT AND GIVEN TO THE HONORABLE JUDGE, ROYCE C. LAMBERTH, UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE, WITH ALL DOCUMENTS CONCERNING ACTION TAKEN BY THE CROW TRIBAL LEGISLATURE INVOLVING “CROW TRIBE V. NORTON” NO.: 1:02-CV-00284 (RCL).
