TRIBAL COUNCIL OF THE NORTHERN CHEYENNE TRIBE
NORTHERN CHEYENNE RESERVATION
LAME DEER, MONTANA

ORDINANCE NO. DOI-001 (2000)

AN ORDINANCE OF THE NORTHERN CHEYENNE TRIBAL COUNCIL AMENDS ARTICLE II OF THE NORTHERN CHEYENNE CIVIL CODE TO PROVIDE FOR THE EXCLUSION OF INDIVIDUALS CONVICTED FOR A DRUG OFFENSE.

WHEREAS, the Northern Cheyenne Tribal Council is the governing body of the Northern Cheyenne Reservation by authority of the Amended Constitution and Bylaws as approved by the Secretary of the Interior on May 31, 1996; and,

WHEREAS, the Tribal Constitution charges the Tribal Council with the duty to protect the health and general welfare of the Tribe; and,

WHEREAS, the Tribal Council recognizes that there is widespread drug use on the Northern Cheyenne Reservation by members and non-members alike; and,

WHEREAS, the Tribal Council further recognizes that the drug activity on the Northern Cheyenne Reservation poses a very serious problem that threatens and health and welfare of the Tribe and its members; and,

WHEREAS, the Tribal Council has the power to exclude all persons not legally entitled to reside on the Northern Cheyenne Reservation; and,

WHEREAS, the Tribal Council believes it is absolutely necessary for it to exercise its exclusion power and take a firm stand against drugs by enacting a law that will discourage drug activity by residents of the Northern Cheyenne Reservation.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT ORDAINED that the Northern Cheyenne Tribal Council hereby amends Article II of the Northern Cheyenne Civil Code by adding the following section:

4-2-2.5      Exclusion For Conviction Of Drug Offense

A.      Except as provided under Section 4-2-1, any member or non-member of the Northern Cheyenne Tribe residing on the Northern Cheyenne Reservation that is convicted in any Court of any drug offense committed on or off the Northern Cheyenne Reservation shall be excluded from the Reservation for four (4) years, and non-members shall be permanently excluded. For purposes of this provision, the term "drug offense" shall mean a misdemeanor or felony conviction for growing, possessing, using, selling, distributing, manufacturing, transporting, gifting or for conspiracy to commit any of the foregoing, of any quantity of substance classified as belonging in Schedule I of the Federal Controlled Act; provided that this provision shall not apply to any conviction arising out of the use of peyote in the Native American Church.

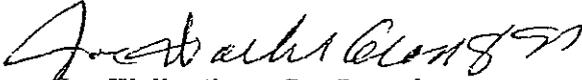

B. Upon confirmation of an off-reservation conviction, the Tribal Prosecutor shall immediately initiate an exclusion proceeding against any Northern Cheyenne Reservation resident that has been convicted of a drug offense by an off-Reservation Court. In determining whether exclusion is warranted, the Tribal Court may not consider the merits of the underlying conviction. The only issues that may be determined by the Tribal Court shall be whether due process was afforded the defendant by the off-Reservation Court and whether the defendant has a defense under Section 4-2-1. If the Tribal Court finds that due process was afforded the Defendant and that the Defendant does not have a defense under Section 4-2-2, the individual shall be excluded for four (4) years.

C. Exclusion shall automatically be imposed upon a conviction of an on-Reservation drug offense tried in the Tribal Court and a finding that the defendant does not have a defense under Section 4-2-1. Time spent in the Tribal jail from the date of the imposition of the exclusion order shall count towards time served on said order.

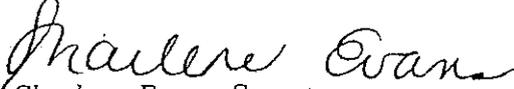

D. Any person that owns non-trust land on the Reservation may raise this fact as a defense provided that the person owned the land prior to the arrest for the conviction. Ownership of non-trust land shall not be a defense to exclusion unless defendant purchased the land prior to the arrest for the conviction.

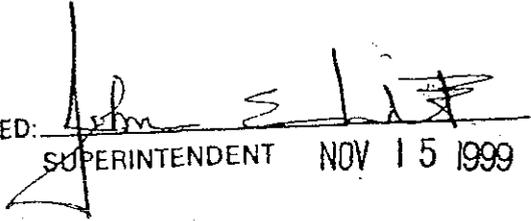

E. A person excluded from the Reservation may only enter the Reservation to seek to quash an exclusion order. An individual excluded from the Reservation under this Section shall remain excluded until such time they certify with the Tribal Court that they have successfully attended and completed a ninety (90) day drug treatment program and the Tribal Court quashes the exclusion order. A certification shall set forth the individual's name, the date he/she was excluded, the name of the treatment program successfully completed, and the date it was completed. Upon certification, the Tribal Court Clerk shall notify the Tribal Prosecutor of the certification and set a date for a certification hearing. The Tribal Prosecutor shall investigate and confirm or rebut the information provided on the certification at the certification hearing. Upon finding that the individual successfully completed a ninety (90) day drug treatment program, the Tribal Court shall issue an order quashing the exclusion order.

PASSED, ADOPTED AND APPROVED by the Northern Cheyenne Tribal Council by 9 votes for passage and adoption and 0 votes against passage and adoption on this 18th day of October 1999.

II. EXPULSION AND EXCLUSION OF NON-MEMBERS FROM THE NORTHERN CHEYENNE INDIAN RESERVATION

4-2-1 Who May be Excluded

Any non-member of the Northern Cheyenne Tribe, except persons authorized by federal law to be present on Tribal land and owners of non-trust land on the Reservation, may be excluded from the Northern Cheyenne Reservation.

4-2-2 Grounds for Exclusion

Non-members may be excluded for commission of one or more of the following acts within the Northern Cheyenne Reservation:

- A. Violation of any Northern Cheyenne Tribal Council ordinance.
- B. Unauthorized prospecting, measuring or studying of the Northern Cheyenne Reservation.
- C. Entering an area of the Northern Cheyenne Reservation in violation of any order of the Northern Cheyenne Tribal Council designating such area as closed because of a fire hazard or for any other reason.
- D. Use, possession, or sale of any drug, narcotic drug or controlled substance as defined by the state Uniform Controlled Substances Act.
- E. Defrauding any enrolled member of just compensation for his labor or service of any nature done at the request of the non-member.
- F. Any action causing physical loss or damage of any nature to tribal property or property of any enrolled member.

4-2-3 Notice of Proposed Exclusion

A judge of the Northern Cheyenne Court shall cause notice to be served personally or by registered mail upon any non-member whenever the Reservation Prosecutor petitions the Court for exclusion of the non-member. The notice shall state the reason for the proposed exclusion and shall name a time and place where the non-member may appear before the Northern Cheyenne Court to show cause why he should not be excluded from the Northern Cheyenne Reservation. The hearing shall be not less than ten (10) days after service of the notice or mailing of the notice, whichever is later, provided that if the judge shall have reasonable cause to believe an emergency exists, and the notice so states, the hearing may be held after twenty-four hours from the time of service or mailing, whichever is later.

4-2-4 Hearing on Exclusion Before Northern Cheyenne Court

After notice to the non-member proposed for exclusion, the Northern Cheyenne Court shall hold a hearing to decide whether the non-member shall be excluded from the Northern Cheyenne Reservation. The non-member shall be given an opportunity to present his defense at such hearing and may be represented by counsel. After the hearing, or after the time set for the hearing, if after notice the non-member does not appear, the Northern Cheyenne Court may order him excluded from the Northern Cheyenne Reservation, or may permit him to remain upon the Reservation on such conditions as the Northern Cheyenne Court sees fit to impose. All orders of exclusion shall remain in force until revoked by the Northern Cheyenne Court unless the order specifically provides otherwise.

4-2-5 Appellate Proceedings

Appeals from any exclusion shall be with the Northern Cheyenne Reservation Appeals Court.

4-2-6 Proceedings for Enforcement of Orders of Exclusion

If any non-member ordered excluded by the Northern Cheyenne court does not promptly obey the order, the judge shall refer the case to the Northern Cheyenne Reservation police, who shall promptly escort the person excluded to the nearest Reservation boundary.

4-2-7 Physical Removal

In cases involving immediate danger to life, health, morals, or property and where any delay would result in irreparable damage, a judge of the Northern Cheyenne Court may order any Northern Cheyenne law enforcement officers to remove a non-member and any property of such non-member from the Northern Cheyenne Reservation, either before or after the non-member has been ordered excluded by the Northern Cheyenne court as provided in 4-2-4. The officer executing the order shall use only so much force as is necessary to effect the removal. If service of the notice provided for in 4-2-3 has not already been made on the non-member, the judge shall cause the officer to serve the notice upon the non-member at the time of removal, or he shall cause the notice to be served as soon after removal as possible.

In all cases where the non-member has not already been ordered excluded by the Northern Cheyenne court, the judge shall notify the non-member of a place on the Reservation boundary where he may re-enter in the company of a Northern Cheyenne law enforcement officer for the purpose of attending the hearing before the Northern Cheyenne Court. The order shall command the officer to accompany the non-member while he is on the Reservation coming to and leaving his hearing.

4-2-8 Separability

If any provision of sections 4-1-1 through 4-2-7, or their application to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the remainder of these sections, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

IN REPLY REFER TO:

Executive Direction
Code 100

Mr. Joe Walks Along, Sr., President
Northern Cheyenne Tribal Council
P.O. Box 128
Lame Deer, Montana 59043

Dear Mr. Walks Along,

Enclosed is the original of the Northern Cheyenne Tribal Ordinance No. DOI- 001 (2000) enacted by the Council on October 18, 1999, and received in this office on November 1, 1999.

Ordinance No. DOI- 001 (2000) - approves the amendment of Article II of the Northern Cheyenne Civil Code by adding the following: [Section II, 4-2-2.5 (A), (B), (C), (D), (E)]

Although Ordinance No. DOI-001 (2000) approves the amendment of Article II of the Northern Cheyenne Civil Code, I have outlined some areas which merit clarification regarding existing [Section II], as it currently reads, and the newly added amendment [Section II 4-2-2.5 (A), (B), (C), (D), (E)].

1) Proposed [Section II, 4-2-2.5 Exclusion for Conviction of Drug Offense]. This proposed provision amends Article II of the Northern Cheyenne Civil Code by adding it to Section II. However numeric listings in the Civil Code [Section II] lists only [Section II, 4-2-1, Section II, 4-2-2 (A),(B),(C),(D),(E) and (F)]. Then it continues with [Section II 4-2-3]. There is no [Section 4-2-2.1, 2, 3, or 4]. If the intent was to add Ordinance 4-2-2.5 into this Section then there is no logical place to insert the proposed ordinance. Please advise as to where you would like this to be listed?

2) Proposed Northern Cheyenne Civil Code [Article II 4-2-2.5(A)] currently reads "Except as provided under Section 4-2-1, any member or non-member of the Northern Cheyenne Tribe residing on the Northern Cheyenne Reservation that is convicted in any Court of any drug offense committed on or off the Northern Cheyenne Reservation shall be excluded from the Reservation for four (4) years, and non-members shall be permanently excluded. For purposes of this provision, the term "drug offense" shall mean a misdemeanor or felony conviction for growing, possessing, using, selling, distributing, manufacturing, transporting, gifting or for conspiracy to commit any of the foregoing, of any quantity of substance classified as belonging in Schedule I of the Federal Controlled Act; provided that this provision shall not apply to any conviction arising out of the use of peyote in the Native American Church".

A. [Section 4-2-2.5(A)] specifically reads, "Except as provided under [Section 4-2-1], any member or non-member of the Northern Cheyenne Tribe...". In reviewing the Northern Cheyenne Tribal Law and Order Code [Section II, 4-2-1], it specifically refers to "Any non-member of the Northern Cheyenne Tribe". There should be a consistency of wording so when the proposed [Section II, 4-2-2.5(A)] is included and refers back to [Section II, 4-2-1] they would both read "Any member or non-member of the Northern Cheyenne Tribe". This would bring the proposed ordinance into consistency with the tribe's intent to include both members and non-members into the ordinance. Otherwise a "Member" of the Northern Cheyenne Tribe would have a valid defense because as it currently reads [Section II 4-2-1] does not pertain "Members" of the Northern Cheyenne Tribe.

B. Under proposed [Section II, 4-2-2.5 Exclusion for Conviction of Drug Offense], currently reads "provided that this provision shall not apply to any conviction arising out of the use of peyote in the Native American Church".

Does this also pertain to non-Native Americans? It appears that the non-Native Americans may not have been included in the "American Indian Freedom of Religious Act, of 1978. Since Native American rights are specifically protected regarding the use of peyote in the Native American Church.

Is it the intent of the Northern Cheyenne Tribe to include non-members who are non-Native American if they were convicted of a criminal offense regarding the use and/or mis-use of peyote inside or outside the Native American Church if you are not protected by the American Indian Freedom of Religious Act, 1978?

3. Proposed [Section II, 4-2-2.5(B)] reads "Upon confirmation of an off-reservation conviction, the Tribal Prosecutor shall immediately initiate an exclusion proceeding against any Northern Cheyenne Reservation resident that has been convicted of a drug offense by an off-Reservation Court. In determining whether exclusion is warranted, the Tribal Court may not consider the merits of the underlying conviction. The only issues that may be determined by the Tribal Court shall be whether due process was afforded the defendant by the off-Reservation Court and whether the defendant has a defense under Section 4-2-1. If the tribal court finds that due process was afforded the Defendant and that the Defendant does not have a defense under Section 4-2-2, the individual shall be excluded for four (4) years".

A. What provisions would be in place should the individual resident be an adolescent?

B. In referring to proposed [Section 4-2-2-5.B] "whether the defendant has a defense under [Section 4-2-1]". Northern Cheyenne Civil Code [Section 4-2-1] currently reads "Any non-member of the Northern Cheyenne Tribe..." if this is not amended to reflect the change as cited above #2-A to read "Any member or non-member of the Northern Cheyenne Tribe" then a "Member" of the Northern Cheyenne Tribe could use this as a means of defense since [Section II, 4-2-1] specifically refers to "non-members" of the Northern Cheyenne Tribe."

C. Proposed [Section II 4-2-2.5(B)] further states, "If the tribal court finds that due process was afforded the Defendant and that the Defendant does not have a defense under Section 4-2-2, the individual shall be excluded for four (4) years". A final defense of a member of the Northern Cheyenne Tribe would be to challenge [Section II 4-2-2 Grounds for Exclusion] since it reads "Non-members may be excluded...". Again this would be interpreted to exclude "Members of the Northern Cheyenne Tribe".

4. Proposed [Section II, 4-2-2.5(C)] currently reads "Exclusion shall automatically be imposed upon a conviction of an on-Reservation drug offense tried in the Tribal Court and a finding that the defendant does not have a defense under [Section 4-2-1]. Time spent in the Tribal jail from the date of the imposition of the exclusion order shall count towards time served on said order."

A. The Northern Cheyenne Law & Order Code [Section II, 4-2-1] currently reads "Any non-member of the Northern Cheyenne Tribe..." therefore a "Member" of the Northern Cheyenne Tribe would have a valid defense to the proposed clause as [Section II, 4-2-1] specifically does not address "Members of the Northern Cheyenne Tribe".

5. Proposed [Section II 4-2-2-5(D)] reads "Any person that owns non-trust land on the Reservation may raise this fact as a defense provided that the person owned the land prior to the arrest for the conviction. Ownership of non-trust land shall not be a defense to exclusion unless defendant purchased the land prior to the arrest for the conviction."

A. The proposed section also states "unless defendant purchased the land prior to the arrest for the conviction". Does this mean only "purchased" or should this be changed to read "acquired"? A person can own land before an arrest and conviction if the land was "inherited" or "gift deeded" without actually "purchasing" the land.

B. Would it matter if the person convicted of a drug offense actually resides on the non-trust land or simply owns a non-trust section of land and does not actually reside on it?

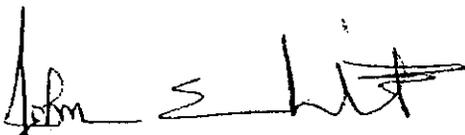

6. In reading the Northern Cheyenne Civil Code [Section II] in its entirety, you will note that [Section II 4-2-3 Notice of Proposed Exclusion], [Section II 4-2-4 Hearing on Exclusion before Northern Cheyenne Court], [Section II 4-2-6 Proceeding for Enforcement of Orders of Exclusion], [Section II 4-2-7 Physical Removal] all refer to "non-members" and make no mention of "members" of the Northern Cheyenne Tribe. I would recommend revisiting the entire [Section II] of the Northern Cheyenne Civil Code and make adjustments where necessary to accomplish the full intent of proposed Ordinance DOI-001.

The Northern Cheyenne Tribal Council has the authority to take this action via Section 1 (h), (r), (I) of the Northern Cheyenne Tribal Constitution.

Enclosed is a copy of the Northern Cheyenne Tribal Civil Code [Section II, EXPULSION AND EXCLUSION OF NON-MEMBERS FROM THE NORTHERN CHEYENNE INDIAN RESERVATION] in its entirety.

All necessary copies of this resolution have been retained for our files.

Sincerely,

Superintendent

RULES OF CRIMINAL PROCEDURE CODE

I. SCOPE, PURPOSE AND CONSTRUCTION

Rule 1: Scope, Purpose and Construction

- A. These rules shall govern the procedure in the Trial Court of the Northern Cheyenne Court (hereinafter "Court") for all cases involving criminal proceedings. [As amended by Ord. DOI 3(98)]
- B. These rules are intended to provide for a fair trial and the just determination of every criminal proceeding before the Court. All rules shall be interpreted to provide simplicity and fairness in application, while eliminating unjustifiable expense and delay.
- C. Federal and State rules may be used as guidelines, where appropriate.
- D. The Northern Cheyenne Tribal Council hereby authorizes the Bureau of Indian Affairs to use and enforce this Criminal Procedure Code. [As amended by Ord. DOI 3(98)]

II. PROCEEDINGS BEFORE TRIAL

Rule 2: Commencement of Criminal Proceedings

A. Complaint [As amended by Ord. DOI 3(98)]

Criminal proceedings shall be commenced by the Northern Cheyenne Tribal Prosecutor (hereinafter "Prosecutor") filing a written complaint with the Court. A complaint is the written statement of the essential facts constituting the offense charged. No complaint shall be accepted for filing unless it satisfies the requirements of Rule 2(B). However, minor omissions or errors in the complaint will not be grounds for dismissal of the case unless significant prejudice against the defendant is shown.

B. Contents of the Complaint

1. Affidavit(s) or sworn statement(s) made by a complaining witness stating the name of the person accused, if known, or a description of the accused, adequate for identification and the time, place and description of the actions leading to the complaint.
2. The name(s) and code designation(s) of the offenses complained of. If the facts show more than one offense took place, each offense shall be stated separately. Offenses may be charged using the language of the Code.

3. The signature of the Prosecutor, and the Court Clerk or a Trial Judge (hereinafter "Judge"), and the date each signed. [As amended by Ord. DOI 3(98)]

Rule 3: Use of Complaint — Summons or Warrant

A. Review of Complaint [As amended by Ord. DOI 3(98)]

1. The Prosecutor will review all complaints filed to determine if sufficient merit exists to submit the complaint to a Judge for appropriate action.
2. If sufficient merit appears to exist from examination of the complaint and complainant, the Prosecutor will sign the complaint, and submit it to a Judge with recommendations for a summons or warrant. If sufficient merit is not apparent, the complaint will be brought to the attention of Reservation police with suggestions for investigation, if any. Complainants should be notified of actions taken, where possible.
3. When a complaint is submitted for the review of a Judge, a summons or arrest warrant must be issued unless the Judge feels probable cause does not exist for such action. If a summons or warrant is not issued, the complaint must be returned immediately to the prosecutor for further investigation.

B. Summons [As amended by Ord. DOI 3(98)]

1. The Judge may issue a summons when in his discretion arrest does not appear necessary. The summons shall name the defendant, the offense charged, and order the defendant to appear before a Judge within five (5) days. The summons shall also inform the defendant a warrant of arrest will be issued if he fails to appear within five (5) days.
2. Service of Summons. The summons, along with a copy of the complaint, shall be served by an authorized law officer. Service will be valid if the papers are delivered within the Court's jurisdiction to the defendant personally. Once served, the officer shall note the date, time and place of service on a copy of the summons, which will be filed with the records of the case.

C. Arrest With a Warrant

1. Issuance. Where the Judge finds that arrest is essential, or a summons cannot be served he shall issue a warrant for arrest of the defendant named in the complaint. The warrant shall name the defendant, or contain a description by which the defendant can be identified with reasonable certainty, state the offense charged, and be signed by the Judge. [As amended by Ord. DOI 3(98)]

2. Use of Arrest Warrant. A Reservation law enforcement officer shall use the warrant to take the defendant into custody. The officer shall have the warrant in his possession at the time of arrest, but if this is not possible, arrests can be made, as long as the defendant is informed of the charge(s) against him, and as soon as possible receives a copy of the warrant.
3. Jurisdiction Limits. A warrant for arrest will be valid only within the jurisdiction of the Court, unless it is used in conformance with the extradition procedures set forth in this Code. [As amended by Ord. DOI 3(98)]
4. Time of Arrest. If the offense charged is a Class A or B offense, the arrest may be made at any time of the day or night; if it is a Class C offense, the arrest pursuant to a warrant cannot be made between the hours of 9:00 p.m. and 8:00 a.m. unless such is specifically authorized by the issuing Judge.

Rule 4: Extradition

- A. A warrant of arrest issued by any other jurisdiction for any person found within the exterior boundaries of the Northern Cheyenne Reservation shall be presented to a Northern Cheyenne Court Trial Judge prior to the person being taken into custody. [As amended by Ord. DOI 3(98)]

If the Judge, after reviewing the date, charge, and identity of the person named is satisfied as to the warrant's validity, then he shall also issue an arrest warrant. The person named will then be taken into custody by the Northern Cheyenne law enforcement officials and with the assistance of the other authorities involved, if requested, and held at Northern Cheyenne jail pending a removal hearing. [As amended by Ord. DOI 3(98)]

- B. As soon as possible a removal hearing will be held. If the Judge determines that the person in custody and before the Court is the same person charged in the warrant and that there is probable cause that such person committed the offense charged in the warrant, a removal order shall be issued and the person promptly turned over to the custody of the appropriate authorities. [As amended by Ord. DOI 3(98)]
- C. The person arrested may execute a waiver of removal hearing after being informed of all his rights including a right to such hearing. If the waiver is executed, the person shall be promptly turned over to the custody of the appropriate authorities.

- D. This rule is intended to allow extradition by federal authorities and any other jurisdiction that allows extradition by the Northern Cheyenne Reservation.

Rule 5: Arrest Without a Warrant.

A. Authority to Arrest Without a Warrant.

A Reservation Police officer may arrest someone without a warrant or knowledge of an outstanding complaint, if the officer has reasonable cause to believe that such person has committed:

1. A class A or B offense; or
2. A class C offense, and the officer has witnessed the offense, or has reasonable cause to believe that such person:
  - a. Will not be apprehended unless immediately arrested; or
  - b. May cause injury to himself or others or damage property unless immediately arrested.

B. Reasonable Cause.

Reasonable cause exists under this Rule where the officer has substantial objective basis for believing that the person to be arrested has committed a crime. In determining whether reasonable cause exists to justify an arrest without a warrant, an officer may take into account all information which a prudent officer would judge relevant to the likelihood that a crime has been committed and that the person to be arrested has committed it.

C. Citation Procedure

The police department and Judges of the Northern Cheyenne Reservation have the authority to develop and implement a citation procedure where arrests made by police officers for some crimes can be processed to conclusion with citations only.

Rule 6: Arrest Procedures.

- A. When arresting or attempting to arrest an individual, all Reservation Police officers must:
1. Inform the person that he is under arrest;
  2. Identify himself as a Reservation Police officer;

3. Where possible, inform the person of the reason(s) for the arrest;
  4. Where possible, show the warrant for arrest if such exists; and
  5. Inform the arrested person of his right to remain silent, his right to have counsel present during questioning, and that anything he says could be used against him at trial.
- B. When arresting or attempting to arrest an individual, all Reservation police officers may: [As amended by Ord. DOI 3(98)]
1. Use reasonable force and use all necessary means to effect the arrest of a person who either flees or forcibly resists after being informed of the officer's identity and his intent to arrest.
  2. Search the person along with areas within his immediate reach, removing and putting into evidence all contraband or weapons discovered.
  3. When in fresh pursuit, continue in such fresh pursuit and arrest upon apprehension of the person pursued, even if apprehension occurs outside the territorial boundaries of the Northern Cheyenne Reservation. All persons so arrested may be returned to the Northern Cheyenne Reservation by the arresting officer if the arrest occurs in the State of Montana. Otherwise, the arrested person will be turned over to local police officials pending extradition proceedings.

Rule 7: Search and Seizure, Warrant

A. Authority [As amended by Ord. DOI 3(98)]

A search warrant authorized under this rule may be issued by a Judge on request of a Reservation police officer, or the Prosecutor.

B. Issuance and Contents

1. Requests for a search warrant must be accompanied by a signed, notarized affidavit(s) or an oral statement made under oath from someone, to be transcribed and signed by the maker, setting forth information showing that probable cause exists to believe that stolen property, property which constitutes evidence of the commission of a crime, or property the possession of which constitutes a crime is in the possession of a named individual or located on specifically described premises.

2. If the Judge believes probable causes exists to issue a warrant, he shall sign the warrant, describing the person and/or place to be searched, and describing the property to be seized. The Chief Trial Judge will designate one Trial Judge to be contacted for search warrants when the Court is not in session. [As amended by Ord. DOI 3(98)]

C. Service and Return [As amended by Ord. DOI 3(98)]

1. A search warrant, once issued must be served by Reservation police officers between the hours of 7:00 a.m. and 11:00 p.m. unless specific reasonable circumstances exist to serve it at other hours, and such circumstances are stated in the warrant. All search warrants will be void 48 hours after issuance, unless specific reasons are present and stated in the warrant to extend this time period. In no situation shall the warrant be good after 10 days.
2. The officer taking property under a warrant shall give the person from whom or from whose premises the property was taken a copy of the warrant and a receipt for the property taken or shall leave the copy and receipt at the place from which the property was taken. All property seized shall be taken to the Reservation police station, inventoried and listed on a copy of the search warrant. The officer seizing the property shall file a report with the Court describing the property, and the events surrounding the seizure.

Rule 8: Search and Seizure

- A. No law enforcement officer will search or seize any property without a warrant nor shall any property seized be admitted into evidence unless:
  1. The officer has probable cause to believe that the person in possession of such property is engaged in the commission of an offense;
  2. The search is incidental to a lawful arrest, is reasonably related to the offense for which the person is taken into custody, and is limited to the person or areas within his immediate reach; or
  3. The officer has probable cause to believe that the person has in his possession contraband or fruits of the crime, and taking the time to get a search warrant would endanger the officer's life, or seriously risk the destruction of the evidence.

Rule 9: Arraignment

A. Appearance Before the Court

Every person arrested and in custody shall be arraigned at the next regularly scheduled session of the Court, or within 72 hours, whichever occurs first. All others will appear before the Court as arranged. The Court may, in its discretion, provide for temporary commitment of persons who, for reasons beyond their control, are unable to appear in Court at the scheduled session or within the 72 hours period.

B. Procedure at Arraignment

Arraignments shall be conducted in open Court, and shall include:

1. Reading the complaint to the accused, and providing him with a copy of the complaint if he has not received one.
2. Explaining to the defendant the substance of the charges and the language of the law establishing the offense and fixing the penalty.
3. If the defendant is a non-Indian, the Court shall explain his right to assert a lack of personal jurisdiction of the Court over the defendant in a criminal action. If the defendant affirmatively elects to waive personal jurisdiction, the action shall proceed as if the defendant were an Indian. If the non-Indian defendant does not affirmatively waive the lack of personal jurisdiction, the action shall become a civil action to exclude the defendant from the Reservation. The Prosecutor shall prosecute such civil action in the name of the Northern Cheyenne Tribe and the action shall be conducted pursuant to sections 4-2-1 to 4-2-8 of Title IV. The defendant may assert or waive lack of jurisdiction at any time prior to the start of trial. [As amended by Ord. DOI 3(98)]
4. Advising the defendant of his right to counsel at his expense, and the right to have counsel present before entering a plea or making any statement.
5. Asking the defendant to plead guilty or not guilty to the charges.
6. If the defendant pleads guilty, the Judge must address the defendant personally as set forth in Rule 11, to determine if the plea is made voluntarily and with understanding. If satisfied with the defendant's responses, the Judge may then sentence the defendant. In the Court's discretion, a future date may be set for sentencing. The defendant will be eligible for bail if a future date is set for [cont'd on p. V-10] sentencing, or if no bail, he will be credited for time served until sentencing, when sentenced.

7. If the defendant requests counsel, arraignment will be postponed until he has had time to confer with counsel. Postponement shall not exceed one working day.
8. If the defendant is silent, the Court will enter a plea of not guilty for him.

Rule 10: Commitment.

- A. No person shall be detained or jailed under this Law and Order Code for a longer period than 72 hours unless there has been issued a commitment order bearing the signature of a Judge of the Northern Cheyenne Reservation Court.
- B. Pending investigation of charges or pending trial, a temporary commitment order shall be issued.
- C. A final commitment order shall be issued for persons jailed as a result of a sentence of the Northern Cheyenne Reservation Court.

Rule 11: Pleas.

A. Alternatives.

A defendant may plead guilty or not guilty. If the defendant is silent, the Court shall enter a plea of not guilty on behalf of the defendant.

B. Insuring Guilty Plea Voluntary.

1. The Judge shall not accept a plea of guilty without first talking to the defendant personally in open Court to determine that the plea is voluntary and is not the result of force or threats or of promises, apart from any plea arrangements which may have been entered into between the Tribal prosecutor and the defendant. The Judge must explain and determine that the defendant understands the following:
  - a. The nature of the charges to which the plea is offered and the possible penalty should he plead guilty;
  - b. That the defendant has a right to be represented at his own expense;
  - c. That he has a right to have a jury trial if he could potentially be imprisoned;

- d. That he has a right to compel witnesses to testify, to be confronted by the witnesses against him, and to cross-examine witnesses against him;
  - e. That he has a right to testify or to not testify since he has a right not to be compelled to incriminate himself; and
  - f. That if he pleads guilty, there will not be a trial; and in effect, he has waived his right to a trial, and further that any statement he makes either to the Judge or anyone else concerning the offense charged, can be used against him in that proceeding or in any future prosecution.
2. If a defendant pleads guilty and the Judge considers the plea to be made involuntarily and/or without full understanding of the charge, the Judge shall reject the plea of guilty, and enter a plea of not guilty for the defendant.

3. Plea Agreement Procedure

- a. The Prosecutor and counsel for defendant or the defendant may engage in discussions in an attempt to reach an agreement that, upon entering a plea of guilty to a charged offense or to a lesser or related offense, or to assisting in the apprehension of other criminals, the Prosecutor will do any of the following:
[As amended by Ord. DOI 3(98)]
  - (1) Move for dismissal of other charges or all charges;
  - (2) Make a recommendation, or agree not to oppose the defendant's request, for a particular sentence, with the understanding that such recommendation or request shall not be binding on the Judge; or
  - (3) Agree that a specific sentence is the appropriate disposition of the case.
- b. The Judge shall not participate in any discussions, but if a plea or agreement has been reached, the Judge shall on the record require the disclosure of the agreement in open Court or, on a showing of good cause, in chambers at the time the plea is offered. Thereupon the Court may accept or reject the agreement or may defer a decision as to the acceptance or rejection until there has been an [cont'd on p. V-12] opportunity to consider a presentence report if any is to be made.

- c. Acceptance of a Plea Agreement. If the Judge accepts the plea agreement, the Judge shall inform the defendant that the Judge will embody in the judgment and sentence the disposition provided for in the plea agreement.
  - d. Rejection of a Plea Agreement. If the Judge rejects the plea agreement, the Judge shall, on the record, inform the defendant and the Prosecutor of this fact, advise the defendant personally in open Court or on showing of good cause, in chambers, that the Court is not bound by the plea agreement, afford the defendant an opportunity to then withdraw his plea and advise the defendant that if he persists in his guilty plea the disposition of the case may be less favorable to the defendant than contemplated by the plea agreement. [As amended by Ord. DOI 3(98)]
  - e. Time of Plea Agreement Procedure. Except for good cause shown, the Judge shall be notified of the plea agreement at the time of arraignment or as soon thereafter as possible, but in all cases prior to trial. [As amended by Ord. DOI 3(98)]
  - f. Inadmissibility of Pleas, Offers of Pleas and Related Statements. Any evidence of a plea of guilty, later withdrawn, or of statements made in connection therewith, is not admissible in any other criminal proceeding or in any civil case against the defendant who made the plea or offer. However, evidence of a statement made in connection with or relevant to a plea of guilty, later withdrawn, or a plea of no contest to the offense charged or any other offense is admissible in a criminal proceeding for perjury or false statement if the statement was made by the defendant under oath and on the record, and in the presence of an advocate.
4. Determining Accuracy of Plea. The Judge shall not enter a judgment on a tendered plea of guilty without first making an inquiry to satisfy himself that there is factual basis for the plea.

Rule 12: Bail: Release from Custody.

A. Right to Bail.

Except as herein provided, all persons arrested for offenses under this Law and Order Code and incarcerated shall be given the opportunity to make bail and be released pending their trial or appeal.

B. Bail Without Judge.

A bail schedule for Class B and C offenses shall be adopted by the Court and a defendant may obtain release from jail at any time prior to arraignment by posting the amount or amounts of bail specified in the bail schedule for the offense or offenses charged; provided, however, that if the arresting officer or complaining witness shall certify to the jailer, or if the jailer shall certify based on his own observations, that the defendant is at the time he is brought to the jail unconscious or in an intoxicated or apparently intoxicated condition, or for any reason does not appear to be in a conscious and sober condition, such defendant shall not be allowed to post bail according to the bail schedule for eight (8) hours. The defendant shall be informed by the jailer of his right to make bail at the appropriate time.

C. Bail With Judge.

At the arraignment or other appropriate time, the Judge shall set bail at an amount, not to exceed twice the maximum fine payable for the offense charged, which will tend to assure the appearance of the defendant at trial or at such time as his appearance is necessary. A defendant may at arraignment request that any bail posted under the bail schedule be reduced or that he be released as under (D) below.

D. Release Without Bail.

The Judge may at his discretion release the defendant on his own recognizance, if it appears substantially certain, considering all relevant factors, that the defendant will appear at the appointed time.

E. Form of Bail.

The required bail may be tendered in the form of cash, or a bail bond executed by two or more reliable persons as sureties subject to the jurisdiction of the Court in the form which the Court shall by rule direct.

F. Forfeit of Bond.

In the event the defendant fails to appear as required, the Court will forfeit any cash deposited or order the sureties of the bail bond to pay the designated amount to the Court. The liability of the sureties may be enforced by order of the Court without the necessity of an independent action or judgment.

G. Discretion of Court.

The Court may order the forfeiture of bail for non-appearance set aside if it appears that justice does not require the enforcement of the forfeiture.

H. Denial of Bail.

The Court may deny release on bail pending trial or appeal when a Class A offense is charged and it appears reasonably certain that the defendant will pose a serious threat to the safety and well being of the Reservation and its residents if released.

I. Time for Release on Bail.

The right to be released on bail as provided herein shall not accrue until charges under this Law and Order Code shall have been filed. Persons incarcerated in the Reservation jail for violation of federal or state laws shall be subject to be released on bail by the jurisdiction under whose authority the arrest was made according to the provisions of the laws under which their arrest was made. A person arrested for violation of federal law shall not be entitled to be released on bail until the prosecution of such charges has been declined by the United States Attorney, plus a reasonable time thereafter, not to exceed thirty-six (36) hours after receipt of notification of such declination, in which charges for violation of this Law and Order Code, if any, may be filed.

J. After conviction at trial, and with an appeal pending, bail may be continued or allowed by the Judge to run until the final determination of the case.

Rule 13: Joinder of Offenses and Defendants.

A. Joinder of Offenses.

1. Two or more offenses may be charged in the same complaint and tried together if:
  - a. The offenses charged are the same;
  - b. Different offenses are charged, but they arise out of the same act or transaction; or
  - c. All of the offenses charged are connected in a common scheme or plan.

B. Joinder of Defendants.

1. Two or more defendants may be charged in the same complaint and tried together if they are alleged to have participated in the same act or transaction constituting an offense or offenses. Such defendants may be charged in one or more counts together or separately and all of such defendants need not be charged on each count.

2. Two or more defendants can be tried together by separate complaint if the defendants were involved in the same series of acts or transactions that constitute the offense(s) charged.

C. Severance of Trials [As amended by Ord. DOI 3(98)]

If it appears that a defendant is prejudiced by a joinder of offenses or other defendants for trial together, the Court may order separate complaints and may order separate trials or provide such other relief as justice requires. In ruling on a motion for severance, the Court may order the Prosecutor to deliver to the Court for inspection in chambers, any statements made by a defendant which the Prosecutor intends to introduce in evidence at trial.

Rule 14: Discovery [As amended by Ord. DOI 3(98)]

- A. The police or Prosecutor shall, upon request, permit the defendant or his attorney to inspect and copy any statements or confessions, or copies thereof, made by the defendant if such are within the possession or control or reasonably obtainable by the police or prosecution. The police and prosecution shall make similarly available copies of reports of physical, mental or scientific tests or examinations relating to or done on the defendant.
- B. Notice of Alibi Defense

The defendant or his attorney shall reveal by written notice to the Court at least five (5) working days before trial the names of any witnesses upon whom the defense intends to rely to provide an alibi defense for the defendant. Failure to provide such notice will prevent the use of such witnesses by the defense unless it can be shown by the defense that prior notice was impossible or that no prejudice to the prosecution has resulted, in which case the Judge may order the trial delayed or make such other orders as tend to assure a just determination of the case.

Rule 15: Motions and Hearings

- A. Motions Defined

An application to the Court for an order shall be by motion.

A motion other than one made at trial or hearing shall be in writing unless the Court permits it to be made orally. It shall state the grounds upon which it is made and shall set forth the relief or order sought. It may be supported by affidavit and/or a memorandum of points and authorities.

B. Motions raising defenses and objections may be made as follows:

1. Any defenses or objections which are capable of determination other than at trial may be raised before trial by motion.
2. Defenses and objections based on defects in the institution of the prosecution of the complaint other than that it fails to show jurisdiction in the Court or fails to charge an offense may be raised on motion only before trial or such shall be deemed waived, unless the Court for good cause shown grants relief from such waiver. Lack of jurisdiction or failure to charge an offense may be raised as defenses or noticed by the Court on its own motion at any stage of the proceeding.
3. Such motions shall be made in writing and filed with the Court at least five (5) business days before the day set for trial. Such motions will be argued before the date of trial unless the Court directs otherwise. Decision on such motions shall be made by the Judge and not by the jury.
4. If a motion is decided against a defendant, the trial shall proceed as if no motion were made. If a motion is decided in favor of a defendant, the Judge shall alter the proceedings or enter judgment as is appropriate in light of the decision.

C. Preliminary Hearings.

If pre-trial motions are filed in any criminal proceeding, the Court shall hold a preliminary hearing for argument on such motions. All pre-trial motions shall be heard not more than ten (10) days after all motions and responses are filed.

Rule 16: Trial by Jury.

A. Right.

Nothing in these rules of procedure shall be construed to obstruct or deny the right of a defendant subject to imprisonment to have a trial by jury.

B. Jury Request.

Unless a trial by jury is specifically requested by a defendant, all criminal actions shall be tried by the Court.

C. Procedure.

If a defendant in a criminal proceeding desires to be tried by a jury, he must either request a jury trial at his arraignment, or file a written request for a trial by jury not less than ten (10) days prior to trial.

Rule 17: Dismissal.

- A. The prosecutor may dismiss a case in the absence of probable cause after a complaint has been initiated.
- B. If there is an unreasonable and unnecessary delay in bringing a defendant to trial the Court may, on motion of the defendant or its own motion, dismiss the complaint.

Rule 18: Service and Filing of Papers.

- A. Written motions, written notices and similar papers shall be served on each party in the manner provided for in civil actions.
- B. All papers required to be served shall also be filed with the Court.

Rule 19: Subpoena.

- A. A subpoena is an order of Court issued by the Clerk of the Court. It shall contain the name of the Court, the title of the case, and shall command each person to whom it is directed to attend and give testimony or produce for use at trial evidence, at the time and place specified therein. The Clerk may issue subpoenas upon the request of the prosecutor or the defendant.
- B. A subpoena may be served by any police officer or court employee or any person over the age of 18 years who is not a party. Service shall be accomplished by handing a copy of the subpoena to the person named therein. No fees or mileage allowance need be tendered with service. The individual serving the subpoena shall file a return of service notice with the Clerk of Court on which is noted the date, time, and place of service as well as the name of the person performing such service.
- C. A subpoena may be served any place within the territorial jurisdiction of the Northern Cheyenne Reservation Court.
- D. Failure, without adequate excuse, to obey a properly served subpoena may be deemed a contempt of Court and prosecution thereof may proceed upon the order of the Court. No contempt shall be prosecuted unless a return of service notice has been filed with the Court Clerk per subsection (B) of this rule, as proof of service. [As amended by Ord. DOI 3(98)]

Rule 20: Assignment of Cases for Trial

- A. The Chief Trial Judge and Court Clerk shall provide for the placing of criminal proceedings on the Court calendar with as little delay as is reasonable possible. [As amended by Ord. DOI 3(98)]
- B. The Northern Cheyenne Court shall schedule criminal trials no less frequently than 11 days per month.
- C. The Court may for good cause shown by either party direct that a trial be postponed to the next or some succeeding month. However, if the prosecution, for good cause shown, requests and is granted a delay, and if the defendant is incarcerated not having made bail, the defendant shall be released on his own recognizance pending the rescheduled trial.

Rule 21: Pre-Trial Conference

A. Purpose

A pre-trial conference shall be held at least ten days prior to trial in order to determine the points of law and facts agreed upon by the parties.

B. Who Attends [As amended by Ord. DOI 3(98)]

The defendant or his counsel, if he has one, and the Prosecutor are required to attend. Failure to appear at a scheduled pre-trial conference may result in a charge of contempt of Court. Other persons may attend with the advance consent of the Judge conducting the pre-trial conference only if their presence will further the purpose stated above.

C. Conduct of Conferences

No record or transcript of the conference shall be made except for the Order and Memorandum of Pre-Trial Conference. No statements made at the conference by any person shall be used at trial except for voluntary agreements reached between the parties on points of law and facts as recorded in the Order and Memorandum of Pre-Trial Conference. The Judge may also set a trial date and set deadlines for motions to be filed and argued, for depositions and discovery to be completed and for delivering a list of witnesses to be subpoenaed.

D. Disposition by Order and Memorandum of Pre-Trial Conference

The Order and Memorandum of Pre-Trial Conference shall include:

1. Trial date.
2. Whether or not a jury will be called.
3. List of witnesses to be subpoenaed.
4. Agreements and orders regarding depositions, discovery and motions.
5. Agreements regarding points of law and facts.
6. Remaining issues to be resolved at trial.

This Order shall supercede pleadings for the purpose of framing issues for trial.

III. TRIAL

Rule 22: Rights of Defendant in Criminal Cases.

- A. In all criminal prosecutions, the defendant shall have the following rights:
1. The right to be present throughout the proceeding and to defend himself in person, by lay counsel or professional attorney at his own expense.
  2. The right to know the nature and cause of the charge and to receive a copy of the complaint.
  3. The right to meet the witnesses against him face to face.
  4. The right to compulsory process to obtain the testimony of witnesses and physical evidence in his behalf.
  5. The right to a speedy public trial and by an impartial jury if a prison sentence is possible under this code upon conviction.
  6. The right not to testify. The failure of the defendant to testify shall not be construed against him or be commented upon by the prosecution.

Rule 23: Jury Trials.

1. A defendant may request a trial by jury per Rule 16 in all cases where he faces potential imprisonment, except in a contempt proceeding.

2. Rule 22 on jurors in the Rules of Civil Procedure is hereby incorporated by reference.

Rule 24: Trial By Judge.

In cases tried without a jury, the Judge shall make a general finding of guilt or innocence and shall, upon request of any party, make specific findings which may be in the form of a written decision.

Rule 25: Affidavit of Bias and Prejudice of a Judge--Judge Disability.

A. Affidavits.

Upon the filing of an affidavit of bias and prejudice setting forth satisfactory proof of facts establishing, that by reasons of bias or prejudice of the Judge to whom the case is assigned, the defendant cannot have a fair trial, the Judge shall disqualify himself. Any person who abuses this privilege, by filing affidavits of bias and prejudice without basis in fact, shall be in contempt of Court.

Rule 26: Proceedings at Trial.

A. Complaint.

The Clerk shall read the complaint and state the defendant's plea.

B. Motions.

The Court shall accept any pretrial motions for ruling by the Court. All arguments shall be made outside the hearing of the jury in a trial by jury.

C. Opening Statements.

The opening statements shall be made by the prosecutor followed by the defendant or his lay counsel or professional attorney. The prosecutor may waive an opening statement and the defendant may waive an opening statement or reserve the right to make an opening statement after the prosecution has rested its case.

D. Evidence.

Evidence shall be presented in support of the charge, and the defendant, lay counsel or professional attorney shall have the right to cross-examine any witnesses called by the prosecution.

E. Testimony.

The testimony of witnesses shall be taken orally in open Court, but upon motion of the prosecutor, the defense witnesses may be sequestered or excluded until called upon to testify. Testimony can also be given as evidence by properly executed affidavits, depositions or written interrogatories. Physical evidence shall be introduced and admitted only after a proper foundation has been laid as to its relevancy.

F. Motion For Judgment of Acquittal.

The defendant may make a motion for judgment of not guilty or directed verdict acquittal at the close of the evidence offered by the prosecution. If the evidence is not sufficient to support a conviction of the offense charged (beyond a reasonable doubt), the Court shall order the entry of judgment of (not guilty or a directed verdict of) acquittal of the offense charged.

G. Court's Motion for Acquittal.

The Court may also enter judgment of not guilty on its own motion after the evidence on either side is closed, and shall do so if the evidence is not sufficient to support a conviction of the offense charged beyond a reasonable doubt.

H. Defense.

After the prosecution has rested its case, the defense shall have the burden to proceed with the defense and evidence in support thereof, and the prosecution shall have the right to cross-examine any witnesses called by the defense.

I. Rebuttal Testimony.

The parties may then offer rebutting testimony-only on matters relating to direct testimony, except that the Court may, in the interest of justice, permit the introduction of newly discovered evidence.

J. Closing Arguments.

The prosecution and the defense may then present final arguments in the case, the prosecution having the right to open and close.

K. Instructions.

1. At the close of the evidence or at such earlier time during the trial as the Court reasonably directs, any party may file written requests that the Court instruct the jury on the law as set forth in the request. At the same time, copies of such requests shall be furnished to adverse parties. The Court shall inform counsel of its proposed action upon the requests prior to the arguments of counsel to the jury, but the Court shall instruct the jury after the arguments are completed. No party may assign as error any portion of the instructions or omission therefrom unless he objects before the jury retires to consider its verdict, stating specifically the matter to which he objects and the grounds of the objection. Opportunity shall be given to make the objection out of the hearing or if necessary out of the presence of the jury.

2. In every criminal case the Judge shall instruct the jury that the defendant is presumed to be innocent, that the burden of proof rests on the prosecution, that the evidence must show beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant has committed the crime charged, and that if the defendant did not testify, his silence shall not be considered as evidence that he is guilty.

Rule 27: Rules of Evidence.

The admissibility of evidence and the competence and privileges of witnesses shall be governed by the Northern Cheyenne Rules of Evidence.

Rule 28: Expert Witnesses and Interpreters.

- A. Either party may call expert witnesses of his own selection and each bears the cost of such.
- B. The Court may appoint an interpreter of its own selection and each party may provide his own interpreters. An interpreter through whom testimony is received from a defendant or witness or communicated to a defendant or other witness shall be put under oath to faithfully and accurately translate and communicate as required by the Court.
- C. The trial Judge or clerk may act as interpreter with the consent of all parties.

Rule 29: Verdict.

Upon the completion of the closing arguments, and after receipt of any instructions, the Judge or jury, as the case may be, shall render its verdict.

A. Verdict by Judge.

The Judge shall render a verdict of guilty if he believes the defendant to be guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. If some doubt remains, a verdict of not guilty shall be entered. The Judge shall have the option of rendering a verdict immediately after closing arguments or taking the case under advisement and ruling on it at a later time.

B. Verdict by Jury.

A guilty verdict shall be returned in a jury trial only when a majority of the jury finds that the defendant is guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.

C. Mistrial.

If after repeated efforts, a jury is unable to reach a verdict, the Judge shall dismiss the jury and declare a mistrial. If a mistrial is entered, the defendant may be brought up on the same charge(s) again.

D. Several Defendants.

If there are two or more defendants, the Judge or jury may at any time in his/its deliberations, return a verdict or verdicts with respect to a defendant or defendants as to whom he or it has decided. If the jury cannot agree with respect to each defendant, the defendant or defendants as to whom it cannot agree may be tried again, as after a mistrial.

E. Lesser Included Offense.

The Judge or jury may find the defendant(s) guilty of a lesser included offense instead of the offense he is formally charged with. The lesser included offense does not have to be formally charged, as long as it is proven with the same proof used to show the charged offense.

F. Verdict of Not Guilty.

If a verdict of not guilty is rendered, judgment shall be entered into the record immediately and the defendant shall be immediately released from custody.

G. Verdict of Guilty.

If a verdict of guilty is rendered, the Judge shall so advise the defendant in open Court, either sentence the defendant or set a date for sentencing, and enter a judgment of guilty in the Court's records.

Rule 30: Motions of Trial.

Either party may make motions throughout the course of the trial, all of which shall be oral unless otherwise directed by the Judge. Both parties shall have the opportunity to state their respective positions on any motion made. The motions which can be made shall include but are not limited to the following:

A. Motion for Exclusion of Witnesses.

A motion to exclude all witnesses who have not yet testified may be made by either party or done by the Court on its own initiative prior to the time any witness has testified to insure that the testimony of witness is his own independent recollection of the facts and that he does not adopt the testimony of a prior witness. It shall be within the discretion of the Court to grant or deny a motion to exclude witnesses made by either party.

B. Motion to Exclude Evidence.

A motion to exclude evidence may be made during the course of a trial when an opposing party introduces evidence that is inadmissible under these rules.

C. Motion for Judicial Notice.

Either party may, during the presentation of its case, move the Court to take judicial notice of matters which by their nature are not properly the subject of testimony or which are universally regarded as established by common notoriety. Granting or denying the motion shall be within the discretion of the Court.

D. Motion for Mistrial.

A motion for a mistrial can be made at any time during the trial and can be granted in the Court's discretion. A party may make a motion for a mistrial when any action by any person has the effect of prejudicing the outcome of the trial to the point that such prejudice could only be overcome by holding a new trial.

E. Motion for a New Trial.

The defendant may make a motion for a new trial after a verdict of guilty has been rendered against him. The motion must specifically allege the errors made by the Court during the trial which form the basis for the motion. The motion shall be granted or denied as justice dictates.

F. Motion for a Directed Verdict.

1. At the close of the prosecution's case, the defense may move that the Court direct a verdict of not guilty. Defendant's motion shall be granted only if the prosecution has failed to present a prima facie case.

2. Either party may make a motion for a directed verdict at the close of the defendant's case. A directed verdict of not guilty can be made when the prosecution failed to present a prima facie case and a directed verdict of guilty can be made if the Court finds as a matter of law that no adequate defense was presented.

IV. POST-TRIAL

Rule 31: Judgments

A judgment of guilty shall set forth the plea, the verdict or findings, the adjudication, and sentence when imposed. If the defendant(s) is found not guilty or for any other reason is entitled to be discharged, judgment shall be entered immediately, and the defendant(s) released. All judgments shall be signed by the presiding Judge and entered into the record by the Court Clerk.

Rule 32: Sentencing

- A. Sentence shall be imposed without unreasonable delay as provided in this Law and Order Code. Pending sentence, the Court may commit the defendant(s) to jail or continue or alter bail. Before imposing sentence, the Judge shall afford counsel an opportunity to speak on behalf of the defendant and shall ask the defendant if he wishes to speak on his own behalf to present any information which might lessen his punishment.
- B. A motion to withdraw a plea of guilty shall be made only before the defendant(s) is sentenced. However, to correct manifest injustice, the Judge may set aside the judgment of guilty and permit the defendant(s) to withdraw his plea.

Rule 33: Kinds of Punishments

- A. All persons convicted of any offense may be sentenced to imprisonment, fine, work, or a combination of these punishments. However, no section of this Code shall prohibit the Judge from imposing any sentence deemed more appropriate than imprisonment, fines, or work, under the circumstances of a particular case. Sentences may include, but are not limited to: Commitment to a rehabilitation or alcoholism program; work for the benefit of the Northern Cheyenne reservation or restitution. [As amended by Ord. 34(89)]
- B. Non-Indians who are found guilty of an offense and who did not waive lack of personal jurisdiction in a criminal action shall be excluded from the Northern Cheyenne Reservation for a period not to exceed three times the length of time for [cont'd on p. V-26] which such person could be incarcerated for the offense, if found guilty of a Class B offense. If found guilty of a Class A offense the non-Indian may be excluded from the Northern Cheyenne Reservation for a period not to exceed 100 years.

Rule 34: Payment of Fines

Fines shall be paid in cash, or in commodities or other personal property of the required value as may be directed by the Judge. When in the Judge's discretion the defendant has demonstrated an inability to pay a fine immediately, but appears to have the resources to pay over a period of time, the Judge may allow the fine to be paid in monthly installments, not to exceed nine months from judgment.

The methods available for collecting a civil judgment shall be available to collect any unpaid money upon order of the Court following a failure to make any required payment.

If fined and unable to pay the fine, the person fined has the option to serve the fine at a rate of $20.00 per day if served in jail or $40.00 per day of work, when the work will be Court authorized and police department assigned, on work-program projects that involve cleaning or building up the Northern Cheyenne Reservation. [As amended by Ord. 34(89)]

Rule 35: Restitution

- A. In addition to any other punishment, the Judge may require an offender who has inflicted injury upon the person or property of any individual or entity to make restitution or to compensate the party injured, through the surrender of property, the payment of money damages, or the performance of any other act for the benefit of the injured party, within reason.
- B. To require restitution and to fix the amount of all damages, the Court shall begin with a presumption that the defendant is responsible for all damages since he was convicted of the offense causing such damages. The Court shall hold a hearing to receive evidence as to the amount of the damages incurred, and to receive the defendant's rebutting evidence, if any. If the injured party desires, restitution from the defendant shall be rendered to the Court, and then given to the injured party, to avoid contact between the two parties. [As amended by Ord. DOI 3(98)]

Rule 36: Factors in Determining Punishments

In determining the character and duration of the punishment to be imposed, the Judge shall consider.

- A. Punishments under Northern Cheyenne Reservation Custom for similar offenses, as established by expert testimony introduced pursuant to the Northern Cheyenne Rules of Evidence;
- B. The sentences fixed in this Code for Class B and C offenses are maximum sentences, to be imposed only in extreme circumstances;

- C. Whether the offense(s) was malicious or willful;
- D. Whether the convicted person has made restitution, paid damages, or shown a willingness to make amends;
- E. The previous record and conduct of the convicted person; and
- F. The financial resources and needs of the convicted person and his dependents, and such other factors, allowable at law, as the Judge finds appropriate to consider.

Upon conviction, the Judge may require the Prosecutor to present evidence, as necessary, on the above factors in open Court, with the defendant present and allowed to rebut or cross-examine all witnesses. [As amended by Ord. DOI 3(98)]
